WORKERS’ COMPENSATION SECTION EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING
Friday, June 10, 2016

CONDENSED MINUTES

1. Thomas E. Rogers, the Senior Managing Editor of all Bar Association publications is introduced to the Executive Committee. He outlines his responsibilities and the means by which he and the Section have worked together to promote Section events and activities.

2. May 2016 meeting Minutes are approved.

3. Upcoming events. The Section’s June 16 event at the Manayunk Brew Pub is well-funded via sponsorship and has been well promoted. Good attendance at this ever-popular event is once again expected. Noted also that a Happy Hour at the Logan’s Rooftop bar has been scheduled for July 14. Sponsorship also obtained for this event, and good attendance is encouraged and expected.

4. CLE Update (deferred).

5. Committee Updates. Secretary position will be vacant as of 1/01/17. All Executive Committee members are asked to advise their respective chairs as to office holding intentions for calendar year 2017.
   a. Treasurer. See attached Statement.
   b. Fundraising. Per Jeffrey Gross, fundraising efforts remain successful.
   c. Liaison. Discussion as to status of SB 876 and SB 413, as well as HB 1800 and 1141.
   d. Law School Liaison. Chancellor Alfano, in attendance at the Martha Hampton Luncheon, was very impressed with Irvin Stander Award winner Steve Bertil. Accordingly, Mr. Bertil’s attendance at the upcoming Bench/Bar meeting will be sponsored by the Bar Association.
   e. YLD happy hour is pending to promote the First Judicial District’s Youth Courts Program
   f. Events. Work continues to confirm a choice of speaker for the 2017 Martha Hampton Luncheon.
   g. Contributions. The USO contributions fell a bit short of expectations, so efforts will be redoubled going forward.
   h. Diversity and Inclusion. A $2,500.00 donation to Education Works to compensate a Youth Courts Program participant is considered. Further discussion to follow.
   i. Arts in the Courts. The current painting is projected to be finished this coming January.

6. New Business/Announcements. This Section’s $2,500.00 “bronze” sponsorship of the Bench/Bar event shall be continued.
   Ongoing discussion as to submission of an article to Philadelphia Lawyer Magazine regarding this Section’s 20th Anniversary.
